a partnership between Crazy Horse Memorial Foundation and the University of South Dakota

THE SUMMER 2013 UNIVERSITY PROGRAM Applications DUE March 1, 2013 with Early Admission opportunity by January 7

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Admission requirements for the Summer University Program of The Indian University of North America, a partnership between Crazy Horse Memorial Foundation and the University of South Dakota, are as follows:

- Applicants must be 17-21 years of age when the program commences.
- Applicants must possess a high school diploma (Regular Curriculum) or GED before the program commences with a cumulative grade point average or equivalent of 2.00
- ACT or SAT scores are required at the time of application. The composite ACT score for regular admission is 21; the SAT score for regular admission is 990. ACT scores below 21 and SAT scores below 990 may be considered for provisional acceptance.
- Preference is extended to enrolled members of federally recognized tribes, however, the University is open to all qualified students.
- Applicants must possess a need for the curriculum offered.
- Completion of a written exercise on why the applicant is interested in the program.
- Applicants must complete a telephone interview with the selection committee.
- All applicants must complete the admission application and provide accompanying required materials by March 1, 2013. Applicants chosen for admission must submit final high school transcripts by June 3, 2013. (SAT or ACT scores must be submitted with application)

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS:

A complete application package includes the following:

1. Completed application form. (Download a copy of the application at <http://www.usd.edu/summer-school/crazy-horse-application.cfm>.) You may complete it online and print it out, and mail it or submit the application to cde@usd.edu. Receipt via e-mail will be recognized as signature.
2. Personal statement of your reasons for desiring to attend the summer program at Crazy Horse Memorial.
3. Proof of membership in federally-recognized tribe for preference consideration.
4. High school transcript and official college transcripts if previously attended college. Applicants must have successfully completed high school (Regular Curriculum) or have completed a GED to be eligible to begin the program. Official high school transcripts verifying successful completion are required to be submitted to USD by June 3, 2013. An unofficial high school transcript is acceptable to attach to this application.
5. ACT or SAT scores and subscores are required. Scores must be submitted with the application. The composite ACT score for regular admission is 21; the SAT score for regular admission is 990. ACT scores below 21 and SAT scores below 990 may be considered for provisional acceptance.
6. Two (2) letters of recommendation. Letters should be written by those familiar with your high school work or, if you have been out of school for more than two years, by people familiar with your performance in the workplace.
7. Agreement to the Rules of Conduct for the Summer Program. (Attached).
8. Students will be contacted if they are chosen for a telephone interview.

Applications that are not complete by the March 1st deadline will not be considered during the priority interview and selection process. Students applying or completing their files after the deadline of March 1, 2013, may be considered for acceptance on a space available basis after priority applicant decisions are finalized.

A selection committee comprised of representatives from both the University of South Dakota and The Crazy Horse Memorial Foundation will review all applications. Up to thirty two qualified students and five alternates will be chosen. All students will be notified in writing and by e-mail or telephone of their status. Decisions will be finalized and students will be notified by April 22, 2013.
